PROTECTIVE ORDER TO GOVERN THE TREATMENT OF THE JOINT SOLAR COOPERATION AGREEMENT

The JSCA is a separate agreement between APS, the Solar Parties,¹ and certain other entities that are not Intervenors in this case. In general, the JSCA provides that its signatories will refrain from seeking to undermine the Settlement Agreement through ballot initiatives, legislation or advocacy at the Commission.

The signatories to the JSCA deem its contents to be highly confidential. The signatories to the JSCA represent that it contains provisions preventing the disclosure of the JSCA, or the contents thereof, to any person or entity except for an enumerated and limited group of persons who will be required to execute non-disclosure agreements prior to having access to the highly confidential document.

1 The Moving Parties expressly request that this Protective Order govern the terms and 2 conditions, for purposes of this proceeding, of obtaining access to the JSCA and other matters
3 relating to its treatment. The Commission Staff has requested that the members of the Arizona
4 Corporation Commission (the "Commissioners") their policy advisors, and the presiding
5 Administrative Law Judge (the "ALJ") be granted access to the JSCA, under normal Commission 6 procedures governing confidential information. As the forum, the Commission is being requested to 7 issue a Protective Order to govern the treatment of sensitive information, thereby eliminating the 8 need for individual non-disclosure agreements. The Moving Parties therefore seek this Protective 9 Order to eliminate the need for the Commissioners, their policy advisors, and the ALJ to execute the 10 non-disclosure agreement that is part of the JSCA; and to set forth the terms and conditions of access 11 to the JSCA for purposes of this proceeding.

12 While a general description of the JSCA has been disseminated publicly, as expressly 13 permitted by the JSCA, certain signatories to the JSCA believe that it contains proprietary and non-14 public information and any additional disclosure of the terms of the JSCA would result in 15 particularized harm to them. Therefore, they desire to limit access to the JSCA in this proceeding to 16 certain specifically enumerated individuals.

17 In order to expedite the exchange of information between the Commission Staff, RUCO, 18 APS, and the Solar Parties (collectively "the Parties"), and the Commissioners, their policy advisors, 19 and the ALJ, with respect to the JSCA and related confidential information in this case, the Parties
20 respectfully request a Protective Order protecting the JSCA and the content thereof as follows:

21 1. Confidential Information. APS and the Solar Parties ("Providing Parties") have 22 designated the JSCA, all of its contents, any notes, material referencing, deriving content from, or 23 otherwise containing parts of the JSCA as highly confidential ("Highly Confidential Information").
24 The Providing Parties agree to mark the JSCA as Highly Confidential Information by clearly 25 designating or stamping it as "Highly Confidential" and placing it on colored paper to clearly indicate 26 its confidential nature.

27 ...

1 All notes or other materials that refer to, derive from, or otherwise contain parts of the Highly 2 Confidential Information will also be considered Highly Confidential Information and will be marked
3 and color coded in the same manner. Access to and review of the Highly Confidential Information 4 shall be strictly controlled by the terms of the Protective Order.

5 2. Use of Highly Confidential Information. All persons who may be entitled to 6 review, or who are afforded access to Highly Confidential Information by reason of the Protective 7 Order, shall neither use, nor disclose the Highly Confidential Information for any business, 8 commercial, or competitive purpose, or any other purpose other than the preparation for and conduct 9 of proceedings in this Docket and all subsequent appeals, and shall keep the Highly Confidential
10 Information secure as confidential or proprietary information and in accordance with the purposes, 11 intent, and requirements of the Protective Order.

12 3. Persons Entitled to Review. Each party who receives Highly Confidential
13 Information pursuant to the Protective Order must limit access to such Highly Confidential 14 Information to the persons specified in this section. Only the persons specified below shall be 15 permitted to review Highly Confidential Information pursuant to the Protective Order, and the 16 conditions under which review will be permitted are as follows:

- 17 a. The original parties to the JSCA who have fully complied with and agreed to be 18 bound by the terms thereof;
- 19 b. Members of Commission Staff who have previously executed Exhibit A (Non-20 Disclosure Agreement) to the Protective Order;
- 21 c. The Executive Director of the Residential Utility Consumers Office ("RUCO") 22 and his legal counsel who have previously executed Exhibit A to the Protective 23 Order;
- 24 d. The ALJ, who shall not be required to execute Exhibit A;
- 25 e. The Commissioners and their policy advisors who shall not be required to execute 26 Exhibit A; and

1 f. Any court reporter, who has previously executed Exhibit A to the Protective 2 Order.

3 Any dissemination of Highly Confidential Information beyond the persons set forth above is 4 strictly prohibited and shall be a violation of the Protective Order. Nothing in the Protective Order is 5 intended to modify the provisions of the JSCA as they pertain to the signatories to the JSCA to 6 otherwise comply with any provisions of the JSCA. The Protective Order does not impact the JSCA
7 signatories' ability to agree to share the JSCA with others outside the context of this proceeding.

8 4. Nondisclosure Agreement. Other than the Commissioners, their policy 9 advisors, and the ALJ, any party, person, or entity specified in Section 3 above, who intends to 10 receive Highly Confidential Information, shall execute the Non-Disclosure Agreement prior to 11 receiving the Highly Confidential Information. All parties, persons, and entities who receive Highly 12 Confidential Information pursuant to the Protective Order, regardless of whether such party, person, 13 or entity has signed the Non-Disclosure Agreement, are bound by the Protective Order and shall not 14 disclose such Highly Confidential Information to any person, except as provided herein. All Highly 15 Confidential Information shall be filed under seal and subject to in camera inspection and 16 examination only.

17 The Non-Disclosure Agreement, shall contain terms that require the person to read a copy of 18 the Protective Order and to certify in writing that he/she consents to be bound by its terms. The Non-19 Disclosure Agreement shall contain the signatory's full name, employer, job title and job description, 20 business address and the name of the party with whom the signatory is associated.

21 5. (a) Notes. Limited notes regarding Highly Confidential Information may be taken 22 by those receiving Highly Confidential Information for the express purpose of preparing for 23 participation in this proceeding. Such notes shall be treated as Highly Confidential Information for 24 purposes of the Protective Order, and shall be destroyed after the conclusion of the proceedings in 25 accordance with subsection 5(b).

26 (b) Destruction. All persons listed in Sections 3(b)-3(f) receiving Highly 27 Confidential Information shall destroy all such Highly Confidential Information within thirty (30) 28

1 days after the conclusion of the proceedings in this matter, including any appeals. The person 2 destroying such Highly Confidential Information shall advise the party who provided the Highly 3 Confidential Information of the fact of destruction within a reasonable time after the date of 4 destruction.

5 6. Objections to Admissibility. The furnishing of Highly Confidential Information 6 pursuant to the Protective Order shall in no way limit the right of the Providing Party to object to its 7 relevance or admissibility in proceedings before this Commission.

8 7. Requests by Third Parties for the JSCA in this Proceeding. The Moving Parties
9 agree that the Protective Order is intended to govern the provision of the JSCA by APS and the Solar 10 Parties to the Commissioners, their policy advisors, the ALJ, Commission Staff, and RUCO. In the 11 event that any other party to this Docket requests a copy of the JSCA; the Providing Parties shall have 12 five (5) business days from the date the request is docketed to initiate a protective proceeding in this 13 Docket. Upon expiration of five (5) business days from the date a written request is docketed, if a 14 protective proceeding is not requested, the Highly Confidential Information shall be made available 15 to the requesting party under seal (upon execution of Exhibit A) unless APS or any of the Solar 16 Parties notify the Commission that they have resolved the issue with the Requesting Party.

17 In any requested protective proceeding, APS or any of the Solar Parties shall file a motion 18 presenting the specific grounds upon which they claim the request for the Highly Confidential 19 Information should be denied and why they believe the Highly Confidential Information should not 20 be disclosed. Staff and the Requesting Party shall have an opportunity to respond to the motion. The 21 motion by APS or any of the Solar Parties may be ruled upon by either the Commission or an 22 assigned Commission ALJ.

23 APS or any of the Solar Parties may provide to the Commission or the ALJ, the Highly 24 Confidential Information referenced in the motion without waiving any claim that the information 25 should remain confidential under the terms of the Protective Order. Any Highly Confidential 26 Information provided shall be kept under seal for the purpose of permitting inspection by the 27 Commission or the ALJ prior to ruling on the motion. If the Commission or ALJ rules that the 28

1 Highly Confidential Information should be released, APS and the Solar Parties shall be given five (5)
2 business days prior to the actual release of the Highly Confidential Information to bring a Court 3 action if they so desire to prevent its disclosure.

4 8. Protective Proceedings to Prevent Disclosure to the Public. APS and the Solar 5 Parties are providing the JSCA under the condition of confidentiality. APS and the Solar Parties
6 object to any public disclosure of the Highly Confidential Information. In the event the Commission
7 receives any request for public disclosure of the Highly Confidential Information the Commission 8 shall provide notice to the Providing Parties within five (5) days of receipt of that request. Based 9 upon the provisions of this Protective Order, the request for public disclosure of any Highly 10 Confidential Information will be denied, unless the Highly Confidential Information has already been 11 publicly disclosed, or unless the Commission is legally compelled to disclose the confidential 12 information.

13 In the event that the Commission becomes legally compelled (by public records request, 14 deposition, interrogatory, request for documents, subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar 15 process) to disclose any Highly Confidential Information, the Commission shall provide the 16 Providing Parties with prompt written notice of such requirement, in no event later than five (5) days
17 from the date of knowledge of the requirement, so the Providing Parties may seek an appropriate 18 remedy and/or waive compliance. The Providing Parties agree that upon receipt of such notice, they 19 will either undertake to oppose disclosure of the Highly Confidential Information or waive 20 compliance with the Protective Order. In the event that disclosure of Highly Confidential 21 Information is ordered, the Commission agrees to furnish only that portion of the Highly Confidential 22 Information that is legally required.

23 9. Judicial Proceedings Related to Requests for Disclosure. In the event a judicial 24 proceeding is initiated against the Commission to obtain Highly Confidential Information, to the 25 extent the Providing Parties are not specifically named in the action as real parties in interest, they 26 agree to join in the action as co-defendants. APS also agrees to indemnify and hold the Commission 27 harmless from any assessment of expenses, attorneys' fees or damages under A.R.S. Section 28

1 39.121.02 or any other law up to $150,000.00, to the extent assessed against the Commission
2 resulting from denial of access by the Commission to the information, data, records or studies 3 subsequently found to be non-confidential.

4 10. (a) Receipt into Evidence. Provision is hereby made for receipt of the JSCA into 5 evidence in this proceeding, subject to the following conditions and all other conditions contained in 6 the Protective Order:

7 (1) Only one (1) copy of the JSCA designated by the Providing Party to be placed 8 in a sealed record shall be made.

9 (2) The copy of the JSCA to be placed in the sealed record shall be tendered by 10 counsel for a Providing Party to the Commission, and maintained in 11 accordance with the terms of the Protective Order.

12 (3) The JSCA shall not be filed in the Docket.

13 (b) Seal. While in the custody of the Commission, all Highly Confidential 14 Information shall be marked "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – UNDER PROTECTIVE ORDER" IN 15 DOCKET NOS. E-001345A-16-0036 and E-01345A-16-0123, and shall not be examined by any 16 person except under the conditions set forth in the Protective Order.

17 (c) In Camera Hearing. Highly Confidential Information may only be orally
18 discussed, referenced, or disclosed by any party, the ALJ, the Commissioners or their policy advisors 19 in an in-camera hearing attended only by persons authorized to have access to the Highly 20 Confidential Information under Section 3 of this Agreement, who have already signed the NDA. Any 21 record or transcript of such in-camera proceedings shall be sealed and treated in the same manner as 22 if it were the JSCA itself.

23 (d) Access to Record. Access to sealed testimony, records, and information shall 24 be limited to the ALJ, Commissioners, and their respective policy advisors, and persons who are 25 entitled to review Highly Confidential Information pursuant to Subsection 3 above and have signed a 26 NDA, unless such Highly Confidential Information is released from the restrictions of the Protective 27
28

1 Order either through the consent of the Providing Parties or pursuant to the final order of a court 2 having final jurisdiction.

3 (e) Appeal/Subsequent Proceedings. Sealed portions of the record in the 4 proceedings may be forwarded to any court of competent jurisdiction for purposes of an appeal, but 5 Highly Confidential Information and any references to it shall be submitted under seal as designated 6 herein for the information and use of the court. If a portion of the record is forwarded to a court, the 7 providing party shall be notified which portion of the sealed record has been designated by the 8 appealing party as necessary to the record on appeal.

9 (f) Return. Unless otherwise ordered, Highly Confidential Information, including 10 transcripts of any depositions to which a claim of confidentiality is made, shall remain under seal, 11 shall continue to be subject to the protective requirements of this Order, and shall, at the providing 12 party's discretion, be returned to counsel for the providing party, or destroyed by the receiving party, 13 within thirty (30) days after the entry of a non-appealable order. If the Providing Party elects to have 14 Confidential Information destroyed rather than returned, counsel for the receiving party shall verify in 15 writing that the material has in fact been destroyed.

16 12. Use in Pleadings. Where references to Highly Confidential Information in the sealed 17 record or with the Providing Party is required in pleadings, briefs, arguments, or motions (except as 18 provided in Section 6), it shall be by citation of title or exhibit number or some other description that 19 will not disclose the substance of the Highly Confidential Information. Any use of or substantive 20 references to Highly Confidential Information shall be placed in a separate section of the pleading or 21 brief and submitted to the ALJ or the Commission under seal. This sealed section shall be served 22 only on those persons who are permitted to view the JSCA as set forth in Subsection 3. All of the 23 restrictions afforded by the Protective Order apply to materials prepared and distributed under this 24 section.

25 13. Agreement to Treat the JSCA as Highly Confidential Information for purposes of 26 this Proceeding. By agreeing to this Order, the Commission Staff and RUCO have agreed for 27 purposes of this proceeding to treat the JSCA and related information as Highly Confidential. The 28

Commission Staff and RUCO are not parties to the JSCA and thus can make no representation that the JSCA is either in fact or as a matter of law, a trade secret or of a proprietary, confidential or legally protected nature.

14. Breach of Order. Any person who has received Highly Confidential Information pursuant to the terms of the Protective Order, in any legal action or complaint filed in any court alleging breach of the Protective Order, shall, at the written request of the Commission, name the Arizona Corporation Commission as a Defendant therein.

15. Non-Termination. The provisions of the Protective Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this proceeding.
